Life Was Not a Cabaret
Revisiting Weimar Germany, 1918-1933

Fromm Institute, Spring Term 2019
Wednesday, 1:00 – 2:40, Xavier Auditorium
Professor David Clay Large, largedavid3@gmail.com

Schedule of Lectures

I. Burdens of the Past and Trauma of Birth, 1918-1923
II. Adolf Hitler and the Rise of National Socialism
III. Culture Wars, or Disquiet on the Postwar Front
IV. Stabilization: The Promise and Perils of Success
V. Berlin Babylon? Society and Culture in Germany’s Raucous Capital
VI. There Will Be Blood: Political Tribalism and Social Division, 1925-1929
VII. Demolition Derby, 1930-1932: Parliamentary Democracy Self-Destructs
VIII. “Making Germany Great Again”: Weimar’s Fate Under Hitler and Its Lasting Legacies for the World