Rope (1948) 1 hour 20 mins
Thursday, Jan 31st at 3pm – Maraschi
Directed by Alfred Hitchcock, this crime thriller is based on the 1929 play by Patrick Hamilton about two brilliant academics who strive to commit the perfect murder as an intellectual exercise. It takes place in real time and is edited to appear as a continuous shot through the use of long takes. Starring James Stewart and Farley Granger.

The original play was said to be inspired by the real-life murder of 14-year-old Bobby Franks in 1924 by students of the University of Chicago.

Strangers on a Train (1951) 1 hour 41 mins
Thursday Feb 7th at 3pm – Maraschi
Produced and directed by Alfred Hitchcock, this psychological film noir thriller was based on the 1950 novel by Patricia Highsmith. Two strangers meet on a train, a young tennis player and a charming but psychotic socialite, who suggests that because they both want someone eliminated, they should "exchange" murders and in doing so get away with it. The psychopath commits the first murder, then tries to force the tennis player to keep the bargain. With Farley Granger and Robert Walker.
