Electronic Sound Collective Performance
Monday, Feb. 4, 5-6 p.m.

Join us for an improvised spatial performance by USF’s Electronic Sound Collective. In Different Tones, musicians use their phones to create randomized high harmonics all based on a shared fundamental frequency, generating concordant sonorities intended to remind us of our shared humanity.

Offered in conjunction with the exhibition Quiet Spaces: Picturing Sanctuary in the Illustrated Book, and presented by the department of Performing Arts and Social Justice and the Thacher Gallery.
Communication Changes at the Fromm Institute

WE WANT YOUR EMAIL

In an effort to be more green, the Fromm Institute is moving to an electronic form of delivery (email) for a variety of publications. That includes the Newsletter, class handouts, notifications of canceled classes, and important office communications. If you have an email address please let the office know and we can add it to our email list. Remember to add fromm@usfca.edu to your contacts so our communications don’t end up in the Spam or Junk email boxes.

CALL FOR PRESENTERS!

The Plaza Social Club is seeking unique and high quality presentations to add to our cultural programming for older adults.

Who Are We?

The Plaza Social Club is a warm and welcoming program for older adults offered by Jewish Family and Children’s Services (JFCS) and Rhoda Goldman Plaza. Members gather weekly at our campus in Lower Pacific Heights for lunch as well as cultural and educational programming. We meet on Tuesdays from 10 am – 2 pm.

What Kind Of Programs Are We Looking For?

We would love to collaborate with students, faculty, and school clubs who are looking to perform music, give an art history talk, present or talk about research or thesis topics, lead a current events discussion, give a technology presentation, or even practice your presentation skills by giving a lecture on a topic you are passionate and knowledgeable about. We are open to new and innovative ideas and aim to offer many different options for our participants.

Each presentation should be at least 1 hour long. If presenting a lecture, visual and interactive elements would be appreciated.

We offer payment for our performers and lecturers. We also welcome those who wish to volunteer their time to JFCS and Rhoda Goldman Plaza.

To learn more about performing at the Plaza Social Club, please contact:

Celebrating Leonardo: Commemorating 500 Years of Leonardo’s Legacy
Friday & Saturday, February 22 & 23, 2019
Marines’ Memorial Theatre, 609 Sutter Street, San Francisco, CA

Leonardo da Vinci’s achievements continue to amaze us, even after 500 years: iconic images like the Mona Lisa, The Last Supper, and the Vitruvian Man; a remarkable range of artistic and scientific drawings; and inventions far ahead of their time. His notebooks go beyond the writings of other artists of his era, in recording his observations on the world of nature and man. Join Humanities West in exploring Leonardo’s vast achievement and his interaction with the world that shaped him. Friday, February 22, from 7:30pm to 9:30pm, and Saturday, February 23, from 10am to 4pm, at Marines’ Memorial Theatre, located at 609 Sutter Street in downtown San Francisco. Tickets are available through City Box Office.

Celebrating the Life of

Dr. Richard Cohen

Dr. Richard J. Cohen

Friends and family are in mourning today, experiencing the December 25th death of Dr. Richard J. Cohen, an esteemed member of the medical community in San Francisco at age 82.

A proud native of Brooklyn, New York, Dr. Cohen earned his A.B. degree at Columbia College in New York before entering Medical School at the State University of New York's Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn. He interned at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D.C. before coming to San Francisco for a residency in Internal Medicine with sub-specialty training in both Hematology and Medical Oncology at Letterman Hospital. He was sent to Vietnam in 1965, serving as Chief of Medicine at the 17th Field Hospital in Saigon, receiving a Bronze Star for bravery.

After being invited to join a consultative and teaching medical practice in 1967, he continued to practice all three of his medical specialties until retirement in 2011.

Especially renowned as a teacher to his peers and generations of residents and fellows in training, he delighted in giving the Sherlock Holmes lecture every December, teaching the art of deductive reasoning while dressed in a frock coat and deerstalker hat. In 2005, he was awarded the Charlotte Baer Award, the highest honor bestowed by UCSF to a member of the Clinical faculty.

Emanating from his days in Brooklyn as a Dodger fan, he transferred his allegiance in baseball to the SF Giants, becoming a "Ballvude" where he gleefully tore off his signature bow tie in the locker room to change into his full uniform which was emblazoned with Doctor C #18, which is "Chai" in Hebrew, or "Life."

The love of his life was his wife of 59 years, Dr. Sandra Cohen, whom he met under incredibly romantic circumstances while a senior at Columbia and she was a student at Barnard. He was thrilled when she earned a Ph.D. degree from UC Berkeley and began her practice of Psychology. Survivors include his wife Sandra, their son Aaron of Berkeley, daughter and son-in-law, Eve and Keith Cohen-Porter of Denver, Colorado, his adored granddaughters, Thea and Bailey, and sister Hilary Mikoll (Gury) of Colorado.

A memorial service on Friday, December 28th at Sinai Memorial Chapel is planned at 11:00AM. Contributions in Dr. Cohen’s memory may be directed to Congregation Beth Shalom, 301 14th Avenue, San Francisco, where he served a term on the Board of Directors.
