ABU BAKR (573 / r. 632 – 634)

Basic principles and conduct for war:
War is legitimate only for self-defense, to aid other Muslims, and if a treaty is broken. Once these circumstances ceased to exist, the fighting must stop.
Abu Bakr, following the guidelines of Mohammed, proclaimed the 10 rules for the Rashidun army:

O people! I charge you with ten rules; learn them well!
Stop, O people, that I may give you ten rules for your guidance in the battlefield. Do not commit treachery or deviate from the right path. You must not mutilate dead bodies. Neither kill a child, nor a woman, nor an aged man. Bring no harm to the trees, nor burn them with fire, especially those which are fruitful. Slay not any of the enemy's flock, save for your food. You are likely to pass by people who have devoted their lives to monastic services; leave them alone.

UMAR (Omar / Umar ibn al-Khattab / c. 580 / r. 634 – 644)

Established the vast political-administrative system of the new empire, the Caliphate

To his appointed governors:

Remember, I have not appointed you as commanders and tyrants over the people. I have sent you as leaders instead, so that the people may follow your example. Give the Muslims their rights and do not beat them lest they become abused. Do not praise them unduly, lest they fall into the error of conceit. Do not keep your doors shut in their faces, lest the more powerful of them eat up the weaker ones. And do not behave as if you were superior to them, for that is tyranny over them.

On his own universal responsibilities:

If a dog dies hungry on the banks of the River Euphrates, Umar will be responsible for dereliction of duty.

SUNNI / the “Traditionalists”

- they honor the first 3 caliphs (Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman) and accept Ali as the least of the 4 caliphs
  > an ELECTIVE THEOCRACY

- if the Qur’an does not provide a solution to a problem, consult the practice (the traditions) of Mohammed in Medina (the Hadith) as a guide
  > hence, the “Traditionalists”

- for the Sunni, the imam is a leader of prayer

SHIA / SHI’ITES (Shiat Ali) = “partisans of Ali”

- they reject the first 3 caliphs and honor Ali
  > a HEREDITARY THEOCRACY

- if the Qur’an does not provide a solution to a problem, consult the IMAM

- they believe that Mohammed designated Ali as his heir, and that Mohammed passed on divinely inspired knowledge to his heir

- they believe that the true caliph and imam carried both Mohammed’s blood and the mantle of spiritual authority

- the IMAM is a descendent of the Prophet and has the highest spiritual authority
  - he is empowered to interpret the Prophet’s message and faith without the possibility of error [infallibility]

Other cults such as SUFI

- charismatic, mystic Muslims
- seek ecstatic union with God (as Divine Love)
  - in part by losing themselves (going into a trance) through dance
